Waschsalon

■ I had to pay 4 € in advance.

Waschsalon

■ I believed it.
(Normally it worked properly!)

■ Sometimes, it did no reply.

I decide to call it “Coin Eater”.

He stole my precious 1 € coins
from me.

This machine controls the power of wash machines and sells wash powder.

- When I went to the city centre, I usually used the bus stop near the Rathaus.

BS Rathaus

- “Rathaus” does not mean a house of or for “rats” or “mice”.
