

Mohd Hafizal Mohd Isa

Universiti Sains Malaysia
Associate Professor
Board of Advisor for USM-IMCC (International Mobility and Collaboration Centre)

Mohd Hafizal Mohd Isa is an Associate Professor at Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) under the Architecture Programme at the School of Housing Building & Planning. He has graduated from Tohoku University in 2013. He has actively taken part in international based events at Tohoku University such as being a committee member of TUMCA and assisting various programmes under DIEE.

Having the experienced of studying at four different countries namely Malaysia, Japan, Australia and the UK, this has exposed him with vast experiences at the global stage. As a result, he has been appointed as the Coordinator for Mobility Programme at USM International Office from 2013-2015 and later being appointed as the Deputy Director of USM-IMCC from 2016-2019. Today, he continues to assist USM on to fulfill its international agenda as the Board of Advisors for USM-IMCC.

At the School of Housing Building and Planning, he is actively engaged in teaching and research as well as supervising students in the field of Sustainable Architecture. Due to his great experiences in Japan, he always brings USM's Architecture students to enjoy the warm hospitality of Japanese people for study trips and visited Japan's famous architecture firms and architects like Mr. Tadao Ando and Mr. Kengo Kuma.