

TOHOKU
UNIVERSITY

近代日本ゼミ

Modern Japan Seminar

2022年6月24日 (FRI) 16:30-18:00 (JST)

Daigengna Duoer

University of California, Santa Barbara

Making the Esoteric Public

Kālacakra Initiations in Early Twentieth-Century East Asia

Daigengna Duoer

Daigengna Duoer is a Ph.D. candidate in the Religious Studies Department at the University of California, Santa Barbara. Her dissertation maps the history of transnational and transregional Buddhist networks connecting early twentieth-century Inner Mongolia, Manchuria, Republican China, Tibet, and the Japanese Empire.

Online (Zoom)

Please register below

<https://bit.ly/duoer-lecture>

Deadline: June 24, 10 AM (JST)

For inquiries: godart@tohoku.ac.jp